Human Services Council (HSC) Highlights

86% of every dollar raised by HSC goes to program support—well beyond the national guidelines of 70% for responsible nonprofit spending.

The Dr. Robert E. Appleby School Based Health Centers recorded 8,200 student visits during the 2004 – 2005 school year.

The Children's Connection Children's Bank program distributed 3,000 gifts to abused and neglected children in the care of the Department of Children & Families.

The Community Prevention Task Force ran Family Days at Washington Village, organized the Brigg's High School Graduation as well as the Norwalk Youth Council.

The Advocate's Group conducted the 2005 Homeless survey, conducted Shelter Plus Care Training and continues to advocate for the homeless.

Housing Development Committee is developing 56 units of affordable rental and homeownership in Norwalk.

The Community Indicators Committee continues to work to examine trends on social issues and to look for solutions to resolve the issues.

The Voluntary Action Center of Mid-Fairfield (VAC) is the primary source of volunteer recruitment in the area. More than 200 local organizations depend upon VAC to provide volunteers so that they may offer more services to the community.

The Mid-Fairfield Substance Abuse Coalition once again ran its successful Community Service Academy in conjunction with the Norwalk Police Department.

The mission of the Human Services Council
